

WHAT SETS THE CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER PRESCHOOL APART FROM ALL OTHER PROGRAMS?

#1

CDC IS A NAEYC (NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR EDUCATION FOR YOUNG CHILDREN) ACCREDITED PRESCHOOL. ONLY 3% OF THE AUSTIN AREA PRESCHOOLS ARE FULLY ACCREDITED BY NAEYC.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER PRESCHOOL

Small class sizes with a low student-teacher ratio based on NAEYC requirements.

Degreed and experienced teachers specializing in early childhood education.

Included weekly extracurricular classes - Spanish, PE, and Music.

Developmentally appropriate curriculum focusing on social, emotional, and whole child individualized learning.

Children benefit from continuous learning in a year-round program.

Unique outdoor play spaces allow for a natural extension of our classrooms.

OTHER PROGRAMS

Larger class sizes are based on state minimum standards.

Many teachers with little or no education and experience.

Extracurricular classes are limited, non-existent or offered for a fee.

Curriculum focusing on academics without attention to individual children's interests and needs.

Children miss out on continued learning opportunities over the summer.

Outdoor areas are limited in size and scope.
